Sermon by Pastor Swan

Date : 2nd November 2014

Prepared by Tony Yao

What then shall we say, brothers and sisters? When you come together, each of you has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. Everything must be done so that the church may be built up.

(1 Corinthians 14:26 NIV)

His mother said to the servants, "Whatever He says to you, do it." (John 2:5 NASV)

“The Third Day Church obeys the King immediately” Pastor David Swan

The call for the Church to actively do the work of God is stronger than ever and the Body of Christ will do well to respond to that call.

While there is blessing in the outer courts of the Tabernacle of Meeting, the biggest blessing is reserved for those who enter the Holy of Holies.

Examples of people from the past who exhibited the power of the Holy Spirit include Smith Wigglesworth and Maria Woodward Etter.

People who hear God and are quick to obey reap the biggest blessing in the form of His approval and presence in their lives. As you obey Him, God releases His blessing upon you.

Points to Ponder

As a Cell Group, what are the steps that we can take to help and encourage one another in our efforts to do God's bidding?

- a. Encourage a consistent close relationship with God.
- b. Begin by obeying the Holy Spirit in the simplest matters and grow from there.
- c. Persist in the desire to love and serve God.
