

WHAT SHOULD I DO?

“What should I do?” The rich man thought to himself in Luke 12:16-21 after his field produced for him a great abundant harvest. This gave him a problem. But here the rich man has a good problem. His field produced abundantly. He said this, “I have no place to store my crops. I will pull down my storehouse which is too small and build a bigger storehouse”. Anything wrong with this? No, this would be what we would have done ourselves! Build a bigger place to store the harvest. Up to this point, the rich man has done what anyone of us would have done. But his words revealed his heart. The rich man said, “I will say to my soul, “Soul, you have more than enough goods laid up for yourself for many years, in fact for a lifetime. Enjoy relax eat drink and be merry”.

Do you know if you want to know a person, the real person, just listen to the words that come out of his mouth? For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks. When you think of yourself, you are rich towards yourself. You are not rich towards God. You think of yourself, for yourself, what is good for you, what benefits you. There is no place or space for sharing and helping others. You have extras but even these are for yourself, in case of your own rainy days. You say you need them, just in case. But being rich towards God means you recognize that the abundant harvest is a blessing from God. And the extras, the more than enough are to be shared with others and to help others.

“What should I do?” The rich man asked. What would you do when you are faced with a similar situation? I pray that you will not ask “What should I do?” but say like Saul in his conversion, in Act 22:10, “Lord, what do You want me to do?” May your every quest in life for direction and purpose begin with “Lord”.
