

BREAD FROM HEAVEN

BULLETIN 4 - JULY/AUGUST 2019

I DON'T WANT YESTERDAY'S MANNA.

I don't want to eat yesterday's manna. I don't want to feed anyone with yesterday's manna. I want today's manna. I want to eat today's manna. I want to feed someone with today's manna. In Exodus, God rained down bread from heaven, and each day the people went out and gathered enough for that day. If they left some manna until morning, it bred worms and became foul. I also don't want to feed people with other people's manna because it doesn't come out from me as a direct and daily source from God. There is no life, there is no power if I were to speak and use somebody else's manna. The people also needed to go out and gather the manna for themselves. They must put in effort. Read your Bible everyday. Feed on God's word everyday. Get your daily nourishment from God everyday. Connect with God everyday. Set apart a quiet time everyday.

My heart's desire is that I listen and hear God's voice daily, everyday for His instructions. I want to hear His fresh directions for me. It is His NOW word for me. I do not want a single day to pass where I do not hear His voice, where I do not hear His instructions for me for the day. I can ask Him: "Lord, give me the wisdom, understanding and knowledge how to deal with a particular situation or a circumstance." And if our hearts and ears are opened, God will speak to us. Everyday gather as much of the manna as you need, as each of you require. In the Lord's prayer, Jesus teaches us, "Give us this day our daily bread". It was daily, everyday. Not yesterday's. Not something left over from the past. Jesus declared "I am the bread from heaven". Those who eat of Me will never die; those who partake of Me will live forever. Participate in the life of Jesus every day. Just as the manna gave life to the Israelites in the wilderness, Jesus gives life to us today.
